PRESENTATIONS

1. Fiscal Year 2025-26 Parks and Recreation Operating Budget – Cultural Arts Program New Year Requests (Erin O'Brien, Business Manager)

Business Manager O'Brien gave a brief presentation on the Department's Fiscal Year 2025-26 operating budget requests related to the Cultural Arts Program. The department's budget requests will be considered for approval at the upcoming City Council meeting on Wednesday, June 25.

2. Public Art Collection Monthly Spotlight: East of the 101 Freeway (Erin O'Brien, Business Manager)

Business Manager O'Brien gave a brief presentation on three public art pieces, one mural and two sculptures located to the east of the 101 freeway. She provided brief information on the mural "Prometheus Gives Fire to Man," and two sculptures "Inspire" and "Wild Poppies in the Twilight Rain." The Commission expressed their gratitude for continuing to provide a monthly spotlight, as they find it very useful and educational.

3. Subcommittee Reports (Erin O'Brien, Business Manager)

A. Art Gallery Shows

- Commissioner Pomposo informed the Commission that the preparations for the upcoming art show are underway. Specialist Santos added that there are approximately 30 art pieces by 28 artists. She reminded the Commission that there will be a performing arts component on opening day, June 27 at the 3rd Floor Lobby area at the Library | Parks and Recreation Building (LPR).

B. Fundraising

- Commissioner Pomposo informed the Commission there is a low supply of merchandise. This item is further discussed under Matters for Consideration, item 5.

C. Performing Arts

- No update.

D. Public Art

- Commissioner Huerta informed the Commission that the subcommittee met with our public art consultant from MIG to begin the art selection process for the mural at the new Aquatic Center. The list was narrowed down to about 10 artists where the committee's scoring will determine the three to four artists that will be shortlisted.
- Business Manager O'Brien informed the Commission that the shortlisted artists will create proposed submissions that will be included in the Commission's packet along with the subcommittee's final recommendation potentially presented as early as the August meeting.

E. Strategic Vision
