An area defined by HCD every 5 years, in consultation with local community based organizations in each metropolitan planning region

- 30% or more of the census tract lives below the poverty line
- Local quotient of residential racial segregation in the census tract is at least 1.25 as defined by HCD

Amendments (4/2/19)

- Ferries are added
- Minimum Inclusionary Zoning Requirements
- Defines “Jobs-Rich” area
- Protects Mobile Homes

Challenges

League of California Cities:

- Locally adopted General Plans & Housing Elements
- Housing Developers & Transit Agencies determine densities
- Difficult to define “Jobs-Rich” area
- Greater density but no public transit
- Some communities exempt
