

Residential

|                                          |                           |
|------------------------------------------|---------------------------|
| San Mateo County Low Density Residential | High Density Residential  |
| Low Density Residential                  | Downtown Residential Core |
| Medium Density Residential               | Urban Residential         |
| Medium High Density Residential          |                           |

Non-Residential

|                                  |                                 |
|----------------------------------|---------------------------------|
| Business and Professional Office | Community Commercial            |
| Business Technology Park         | Oyster Point Coastal Commercial |
| Business Technology Park High    |                                 |

Mixed Use

|                                 |                          |
|---------------------------------|--------------------------|
| Low Density Mixed Use           | High Density Mixed Use   |
| Lindenville Neighborhood Center | East of 101 Mixed Use    |
| Grand Avenue Core               | Downtown Transit Core    |
| Medium Density Mixed Use        | East of 101 Transit Core |

|                            |
|----------------------------|
| Mixed Industrial           |
| Mixed Industrial High      |
| Industrial Transition Zone |

Civic/Other

|                                 |
|---------------------------------|
| Public                          |
| School                          |
| Parks and Recreation            |
| Open Space                      |
| Transportation                  |
| Planned Development             |
| Streams                         |
| Proposed road network additions |