

RECOGNIZING THE LAST WEEK OF MARCH 2026 AS GOVERNMENT FINANCE PROFESSIONALS WEEK

WHEREAS, the California Society of Municipal Finance Officers (CSMFO) is the state's leading professional organization dedicated to promoting excellence in financial management for California's local governments; and

WHEREAS, government finance professionals serve cities, counties, special districts, and joint powers authorities, by ensuring transparency, accountability, and responsible stewardship of public funds; and

WHEREAS, these professionals play a critical role in managing complex budgets, complying with state and federal laws, maintaining accurate financial reporting in compliance with government accounting standards, administering utility rate processes and enterprise funds, and supporting long-term financial sustainability; and

WHEREAS, California's financial landscape—shaped by Proposition 13, Proposition 218, the Gann Appropriations Limit, CalPERS pension obligations, and fluctuating economic conditions—requires expert analysis and sound financial leadership; and

WHEREAS, finance professionals work diligently, often behind the scenes, to provide critical information that enables informed policy decisions and ensures the delivery of essential public services; and

WHEREAS, recognizing Government Finance Professionals Week during the last week of March helps highlight the dedication, integrity, and professionalism of these essential public servants.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the City Council of the City of South San Francisco does hereby proclaim the last week of March as Government Finance Professionals Week and encourages all residents to recognize and appreciate the hard work and contributions of the finance professionals who serve our community.
