SUPPLEMENTAL QUESTIONNAIRE

Why are you interested in serving as a Boards and Commissions member? What do you feel you could contribute?

I am deeply committed to fostering educational opportunities and supporting community engagement, both of which are central to the mission of the South San Francisco Library. Serving on the Library Board offers a unique chance to contribute to the community in a meaningful way, promoting literacy, lifelong learning, and cultural enrichment. I am particularly drawn to the role because of my belief in equitable access to resources and the important role that libraries play in providing not only books but a wide array of services that support all members of the community, regardless of age or background.

With over a decade of experience in executive leadership, I bring a wealth of expertise in strategic planning, organizational development, and budget management. These skills will

What qualifies you for this appointment?

I am highly qualified to serve on the South San Francisco Library Board due to my extensive background in educational leadership, strategic planning, and community engagement. Over the past decade, I have demonstrated a proven ability to lead large teams, manage substantial budgets, and ensure the successful implementation of complex initiatives—skills that are critical for providing effective oversight of the library's operations and programs.

1. Leadership Experience:

As an Assistant Superintendent in the educational sector, I have worked closely with diverse stakeholders, including educators, families, local organizations, and government agencies. I have a strong track record of facilitating partnerships and collaborating with key community

What is your vision for growth in South San Francisco?

My vision for growth in South San Francisco revolves around leveraging the library as a central hub for education, fostering a community where learning is accessible to all, and helping individuals of all ages reach their full potential. Libraries are vital spaces in our communities that go beyond simply lending books—they serve as gateways to education, personal development, and social connection.

I envision South San Francisco's library system as a dynamic and accessible resource for lifelong learning. By expanding educational programs that cater to a variety of needs, including early childhood education, after-school programs for students, digital literacy for adults, and job readiness initiatives, we can ensure that all residents have the tools they need

What community activities are you presently involved in, or have been in the past?

I am actively engaged in several community initiatives in South San Francisco, where I work to build connections, support local events, and foster a sense of togetherness. One of the activities I am most passionate about is my involvement in the Avalon Park Block Party, where I am connected to the founding family. This event is an annual tradition that brings together our neighborhood, allowing families to meet, celebrate, and strengthen our community bonds. It has given me a deeper understanding of the importance of local events in promoting unity and connection.

Additionally, I participate in various Park and Recreation activities, which has allowed me to support and enjoy the recreational opportunities that help make South San Francisco a
