WHEREAS, the City of South San Francisco's Police Department has been providing part-time police communication services to the Town of Colma for the last 38 years; and

WHEREAS, the current agreement between the City of South San Francisco ("City") and the Town of Colma ("Colma") is set to expire on June 30, 2023; and

WHEREAS, due to state mandates, Colma will not be renewing the agreement, as they will operate their own full-time police communications center; and

WHEREAS, Colma does desire the City to continue to furnish computerized police information services, which include computer aided dispatch (CAD) and records management systems (RMS); and

WHEREAS, the City would continue to provide and maintain computer hardware and system software at the City's communication center to support Colma's CAD and RMS; and

WHEREAS, the City and Colma will jointly maintain and update a computerized geographic information file; and

WHEREAS, adequate funding and staffing for these services is presently allocated in the Police Department's current operating budget and no modifications are required.
