Report regarding adoption of an Ordinance adding Chapter 2.81 to the South San Francisco Municipal Code establishing a Traffic Safety Commission (Sarah Henricks, Management Analyst II)

RECOMMENDATION

Staff recommends that the City Council adopt an ordinance establishing a Traffic Safety Commission.

BACKGROUND/DISCUSSION

On August 28, 2019, the City Council introduced an ordinance adding Chapter 2.81 to the South San Francisco Municipal Code establishing a Traffic Safety Commission.

The City Council directed staff to make one revision to the Ordinance, clarifying that the members of the Parking Place Commission who also serve on the newly established Traffic Safety Commission shall receive a $50 total stipend for attending a regularly scheduled meeting of one or both of the commissions. Parking Place Commissioners shall not receive a $50 stipend for attending each meeting. That revision is shown below.

Section 2.81.060 Compensation

Commission members shall receive for their services compensation in the amount of fifty dollars for each regular meeting actually attended. Members of the Parking Place Commission shall receive fifty dollars total for attending either a Parking Place Commission or a Traffic Safety Commission meeting or for attending both meetings consecutively on the same day and shall not receive one hundred dollars for attending both the Parking Place Commission and the Traffic Safety Commission meetings consecutively on the same day.

(Introduced on 8/28/19; Vote 5-0)

The Ordinance is now ready for adoption.

CONCLUSION

The ordinance is ready for adoption. Staff recommends that the City Council adopt an ordinance adding Chapter 2.81 to the South San Francisco Municipal Code establishing a Traffic Safety Commission.
